MARK S. HELWEIL NAMED A MEMBER OF ROTTENBERG LIPMAN RICH

Rottenberg Lipman Rich, P.C. is delighted to announce that Mark S. Helweil (mhelweil@rlrpclaw.com), formerly Of Counsel to the firm for 27 years, has become a member of the firm. Mr. Helweil shall lead and, along with Member Stacy L. Ceslowitz (sceslowitz@rlrpclaw.com), further develop, Rottenberg Lipman Rich's matrimonial and family law practice.

With over 35 years of experience practicing matrimonial and family law, Mark has extensive trial experience, including favorable decisions in equitable distribution, child support, spousal maintenance, and child custody cases. He also has extensive appellate experience, including successfully arguing at the Court of Appeals, the leading child support case Bast v. Rossoff. Recognized as a "Super Lawyer®" every year since 2014, Mark graduated from the University of Florida with a B.A. summa cum laude in 1977 and received his J.D. from the American University Law School in 1980. Following law school, Mark served as an Assistant District Attorney in Bronx County (1980-1985), where he was a Senior Trial Attorney in the Sex Crimes Bureau (1984-1985), and successfully obtaining jury convictions in 24 of 25 trials.

"We are thrilled to welcome Mark as member to our firm," says Managing Member Mark M. Rottenberg, "and look forward to growing our matrimonial and family law practice under his leadership. Our trust and estates, business, and real estate practice groups, and our deep bench of litigators, will complement Mark's matrimonial and family law group and provide synergies not found in single-discipline matrimonial firms."

Stacy has been a member of Rottenberg Lipman Rich since 2019. She joined the firm in 2014, following her tenure as a litigation associate with Proskauer Rose LLP and as Of Counsel to Schoeman Updike Kaufman & Stern. She also has served as an Adjunct Professor of Legal Research and Writing at Seton Hall University School of Law and is a Civil Litigation Author for LexisNexis.
